The Chief Court directs that the following clause be added to para 1 of the Rule of Practice No. 89, dated 15th December 1896, after the word "stated" :—

ANNUAL SAVINGS BANK ACCOUNT.

Circular No. 1871—Spl. Audit No. 537, dated 28*th May* 1897.

To—The Deputy Commissioners, Treasury Department of Districts.

The Comptroller has the honor to request that they will be so good as to furnish this office by the 10*th of August next*, with the return of Savings Bank transactions and the Dead Accounts for the year 1896-97 in the printed forms prescribed therefor.

2. In the returns received last year it was observed that the occupation of most of the depositors was omitted to be noted, owing apparently to the name and occupation having both been required by the form to be given in the same column. It is now requested that in the return to be rendered for 1896-97 the column in question, which is broad enough, may be divided into two—one for the name and the other for the occupation of the depositor and the information required duly noted therein.

3. Care should be taken to see that no transfer of accounts are made from one district or taluk to another during the latter half of June 1897, and that accounts received by transfer from other Treasuries as well as all the Dead Accounts authorized to be re-opened, are brought into account within the close of the official year.

4. In the case of transfers of account the Treasury from and to which, and the month in which, the account was transferred, together with the old and new account Nos. as respects transfers within the districts, should be distinctly noted in red ink in the remarks column of the return.
